

The Enterprise Systems Service provides information technology services that support both the day-to-day business and the future direction of the Office of the Comptroller. These services include:

- Maintain the Comptroller's Intranet/Internet sites
- Enterprise-wide applications operations, maintenance and enhancement support
- Strategic project planning and coordination

